[Verse 3]

Once songs, I started writing stories, Something about that glory, just always seemed to bore me,

Cause only those I really love will ever really know me. Once I was twenty years old, my story got told. Before the morning sun, when life was lonely

Once I was twenty years old. I only see my goals, I don't believe in failure, Cause I know the smallest life becomes a better one. I made a man so happy when I wrote a letter once, I hope my children come and visit, once or twice a month. Soon I'll be sixty years old, will I think the world is cold, or will I have a lot of children who can hold me. Soon I'll be sixty years old, will I think the world is...

[Chorus 1 Reprise]

Once I was seven years old, my mama told me, "Go make yourself some friends or you'll belong." Once I was seven years old.

Slow down to the end

Once I was seven years old.
